APBA national meeting — Bill Pavlick III

- All membership registrations run through TrackSide (Cassandra Olson).
- All race registrations run through TrackSide.
- Many questions arise and Cassandra will check with Mary to get answers.
- Bill and Michael will be looking into making a flat-fee weekend rate which will encourage step-up classes.
- JH NAC at Danville 2025.
- FAH NAC at Rock Falls 2025.

2025 Schedule — Bill Pavlick III

- Phantom Lake. Cassandra is chief scorer. John Hoffmann is race director and running the pig roast again.
- Danville. JH NAC is awarded to Danville. Setup and testing Friday. Pits are being made larger. Bill is setting up sanction and insurance. Holiday Inn has given us a rate. John Korbus is inspector. Callie Shensky is chief scorer, and Olson will be available via phone/facetime to assist. Need to speak with Buddy Freed to figure out which barge we will have this year for the judges stand. Prefer to have the large barge. We also need to find out if he can provide more cinder blocks and rope. No marathon, but we're open to running bonus races.
- Rock Falls. FAH NAC is awarded to Rock Falls. Cassandra is chief scorer. Friday setup and testing as usual. Froggy's (hopefully) Saturday night. Need to talk with Terry Hicks to see if he needs anything.
- Beloit. Ryan Burdick and Mikey Pavlick are supposed to be co-race directors. Party at Olsons as usual. Need to speak with Burdick and Pavlick to see if they need anything.
- Antioch. See Shep.
- Wakefield. BSOA hosting the Nationals in 2027.

New Business — Bill Pavlick III

- Holden Mackey and John Hoffmann are working on the safety boat Feb. 9.
- Michael Mackey is buying four light boxes for the pickup and safety boats to help with flags.

11:18 a.m. Motion to adjourn. Moved to accept; seconded; vote was unanimous; meeting was adjourned. Next meeting: TBA.
